

Painting Workshop in Mallorca, Spain
Lorenzo Chavez Instructor
May 31-7 June, 2027

Join instructor Lorenzo Chavez in beautiful Mallorca, Spain, for this land and seascape painting workshop in Cala San Vicenc, the very village where renowned artist Joaquin Sorolla once painted. With the ever-changing light, dramatic mountains and crystal-clear sea, this stunning location offers endless inspiration for the artist.

In this workshop Lorenzo will be teaching the Fundamentals of Landscape Painting with Oil or Pastel. From beginner to advanced student, all are welcome.

Lorenzo is well known for his patience and articulate lessons that will awaken your artistic vision with a focus on shape, value, edge, line and color. Offering daily demos and plenty of individual attention, as well as inspiring group discussions, experience meaningful personal growth as an artist and share in the camaraderie and support of fellow artists.

The retreat center is a magnificent villa perched at the top of the village, offering panoramic views of the surrounding mountains. The spacious grounds provide breathtaking vistas in every direction. From the villa, it's a 10-15 walk to the beach and local restaurants. During the week, we'll also take a day trip to explore the charming nearby town of Pollença. See a short video of our accommodations and the village of Cala San Vicente.

Workshop Price: $3500 per person (double occupancy) $4500 private apartment near villa. This price includes lodging, personalized instruction, and two meals a day. Daily breakfast buffet, and either lunch or dinner, depending on the painting schedule. Meals are delicious, healthy, and include your beverage of choice and dessert. Dining together allows time for interesting discussions, conversation and comradery.

Roundtrip group transfers between Palma de Mallorca Airport and the villa (approximately a 45-minute ride are also included). Don't miss this unique opportunity to paint, learn and grow in a breathtaking setting. To reserve your spot, contact: josievosoba@gmail.com. To see video of past workshops visit the website:
